

Water-Fall

Memories

Monsoons are a magical time when the landscape turns verdant green, it is the season to explore forts, go on treks and discover waterfalls cascading down the hills. Waterfalls are a monsoon wonder that we cannot get enough of! We recently came across Kalu Waterfall in Malshej Ghat which is the highest waterfall in the region. If you are bitten by the adventure keeda, then you need to get on your bike and go explore this waterfall, right now!
